FINANCIAL HEALTH CHECK

Sales for the firm had been very neutral and reflected a muted performance. Demand for its goods and services were not apparent. Cost have slightly increased but appeared manageable for the firm during the period. The firm managed a costlier operation to service revenue generation activities. Compared to the previous year, current business model and cost structure may have some fundamental challenges. Severe net losses were experienced- highly inadequate revenue levels and overall inefficient cost structure. Profit margins have severely declined - major structural challenges in the operating environment and business model may be experienced by the firm during the period.

Quite constrained level of shareholder returns were attained during the period. The overall valuation of the firm need to be improved. The shareholder equity level of the firm was somewhat low compared to its total liability exposure during the period. If the firm's shareholder funds are overwhelmed by its liability levels, it could be faced with valuation risk. There was a severe decline in profit growth rate compared with the previous period. Severe net losses were experienced- highly inadequate revenue levels and overall inefficient cost structure. The firm's pricing strategies and its ability to control costs were ineffective. Valuation for the firm based on earnings would be severely affected.

FINANCIAL RISK AREAS

Business Performance	17.1%	Shareholder' Value	13.3%
Risk & Liabilities	45.8%	Productivity	12.5%

FINANCIAL OUTLOOK

- Need to review the firm's product/service mix and their contribution to profitability by product/service line.
- Assess the cost structure between the two periods.
- Assess the market place for products and services which may be used as a replacement or substitute for the firm's existing products and services.
- Perform an analysis of the costs in the business, over the two most recent financial years.

FINANCIAL PROFILE

Was the firm able to generate higher sales?

NO

Sales Growth
-1.1%

This indicates where the firm's top-line is growing or not and to find out if there are any structural or cyclical factors affecting it.

Did sales move faster than cost growth?

NO

Cost Growth /Sales
12.0%

This gives a broad picture if the costs are growing in line with the growth in sales or if the firm is exposed to higher cost structure even if the sales is growing.

Was the company financially strong generally?

NO

Sales Growth
22.2%

The credit score takes into account balance sheet and P&L of the company. A higher score indicates a stronger credit position. .

Was the exposure to liabilities manageable?

NO

Liabilities to Equity
165.1%

This reflects the extent the firm is exposed to fixed obligations versus the capital it has built over the years and whether it has adequate buffer.

Was the company relying heavily on short-term obligations?

NO

Current Liability Ratio
0.31

WHAT'S TRENDING (3-month Rollover)

Expect More Bitcoin On Balance Sheets, As PayPal, SAMPLE COMPANY Fidelity And Walmart Sound Off On Blockchain

Building on its relatively new service letting PayPal's 375 million customers buy, hold and sell cryptocurrency directly from their accounts, Dan Schulman, PayPal CEO, said on Tuesday that the company's recently launched "Checkout With Crypto" service, which encourages purchases with bitcoin, ether, and other cryptocurrencies, will easily reach $200 million transaction volume within months. Schulman's comments were delivered at Forbes' third annual Blockchain 50 Symposium celebrating large companies using the technology behind bitcoin to improve their businesses.

Toddler hodler: 3-year-old Bitcoin educator interviews Michael Saylor

A three-year-old interviewed SAMPLE COMPANY Founder Michael Saylor on her YouTube channel after her father had a "ridiculous idea" to reach out to ask for the interview. Three-year-old Lily Knight, "the world's youngest Bitcoin educator," interviewed billionaire SAMPLE COMPANY founder Michael Saylor for her YouTube channel in a video that dropped on Tuesday. In the interview, Knight noted that Saylor's accumulation of more than $2 billion worth of Bitcoin since August 2020 had been a "ballsy move."

HSBC Prohibits Clients from Trading Bitcoin-Backed SAMPLE COMPANY Stock

HSBC has ramped up its anti-crypto policy, restricting its clients from trading SAMPLE COMPANY stock as the banking institution deems it to be a virtual currency product. Although HSBC traders will be allowed to hold and sell their SAMPLE COMPANY shares, they will not be able to buy or trade new SAMPLE COMPANY stocks on HSBC's investment platform, as SAMPLE COMPANY's underlying valuation is closely tied with Bitcoin. Currently, Bitcoin makes up 80% of SAMPLE COMPANY's reserve.

HSBC Bans Bitcoin Proxy SAMPLE COMPANY—Here's Why

Investors using HSBC's online stock trading platform won't be able to buy shares of MSTR anymore. The British-based bank has an ongoing policy against trading cryptocurrencies, which is pretty standard among most other banks. Crypto investors generally have to transfer their money out of their bank account and into a crypto exchange. In general, most banks can't do anything to stop this. However, HSBC decided to classify SAMPLE COMPANY's stock as a "virtual currency product," given that SAMPLE COMPANY holds a lot of Bitcoin in its possession right now.

SAMPLE COMPANY Announces Plans to Pay Its Board of Directors in Bitcoin

SAMPLE COMPANY business software intelligence company has announced its intentions to begin paying some of its Board directors with Bitcoin. The Nasdaq-listed firm made its 8-K filing with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) yesterday and stated that starting from April 11 onwards, its non-employee directors on its board will get all payments for their service in Bitcoin cryptocurrency instead of cash. Based on the new arrangement, the firm said that compensation fees for its four independent directors will be converted from US dollars into the cryptocurrency at the time of payment via a payment processor and then deposited into the digital wallets of the directors.
